Pancho Villa to Surrender to Obregon

REBEL CHIEFTAIN SIGNS
ARMISTICE AGREEING TO SUBMIT TO NEW REGIME

Outlaw Promises to Yield to Provisional Government on Signing of Pact Agreed Upon in Conference with Envoy Of de la Huerta; Cheers Obregon and Declares He Has No Political Ambitions for Self

EL PASO, Tex., July 7.—A dispatch to the El Paso Times from its correspondent in Torreon, Mexico, says Francisco Villa has signed an armistice and agreed to cease attacks on trains, garrisons or towns.

The rebel chieftain has also agreed to be approved by Provisional President De La Huerta. The armistice was negotiated by Elias L. Torres, who left El Paso two weeks ago for Villa's camp in the mountains near Saucillo, Chihuahua.

Torres, who is in Torreon, enroute to Mexico City, authorized the announcement that an agreement has been entered into whereby Villa suspends all operations until July 15, and further agreement that Villa will surrender when his terms and conditions are approved in writing by Provisional President De La Huerta and General Elias Calles, Alvaro Obregon and Benjamin Hill.

Torres, who represents the provisional government, carries a letter from Villa and says the latter informed him that he had no personal political ambitions and has no intention of interfering with the civil government either in Chihuahua or Mexico City, and further that he recognizes De La Huerta as provisional president of Mexico.

The conference, according to Torres, was attended by all the principal Villa lieutenants, and the agreement to surrender was reached after an open discussion of the terms. The signing of the armistice, Torres said, was the signal for cheers for Obregon and De La Huerta.

MOB OF TEXANS
BURNS NEGROES
AT THE STAKE

Sheriff Says Men Taken from Jail and Killed May Have Been "Wrong Ones"

PARIS, Texas, July 6.—Irving and Herman Arthur, negroes aged 19 and 23 years, brothers, who last Friday shot and killed their landlord, J. H. Hodges, and his son William, on the latter's place, northeast of Paris, Texas, were burned at a stake here tonight.

The negroes were captured by Lamar (Texas) county officers and a posse last night at Valiant, Okla., and were brought here and placed in jail this afternoon. It was thought that there would be no trouble but later in the day a crowd gathered, quickly increased and finally stormed the jail on the top floor of the court house, breaking down the iron door, and took the negroes.

There was no disorder except the yelling of the crowd as the negroes were brought out. The prisoners were taken directly to the fair grounds north of the city, where a stake and fuel had been prepared. There they were burned. The affair was over in an hour and a half after the negroes had been taken. The killing of Hodges and his son is said to have resulted from a dispute over money claimed by the farmer to be owed him by his negro tenants.

BANDITS LOOT STATION
ST. JOSEPH, Mo., July 6.—Three unmasked men entered the Kansas City, Clay county and St. Joseph interurban station here today and forced the ticket agent to hand over the keys to the safe. The bandits escaped with $1,591.

DENY AVLONA CAPTURE
PARIS, July 6.—The Italian embassy here has issued a formal denial that the Abantians have taken Avlona.

Demand Immediate Surrender Of Rifles and Reduction Of Forces

CONFERENCE AT SPA MAY BE BROKEN UP

Lloyd George Insists Upon Exact Compliance of Terms Of Peace Treaty

SPA, BELGIUM, July 6.—Whether the conference on the peace treaty breaks up tomorrow depends upon whether the Germans present a plan for disarmament, the immediate reduction of the German army from 200,000 to 100,000 men and the surrender of upwards of 1,500,000 rifles in the hands of the people, as well as other arms.

Premier Lloyd George, speaking for the allied governments at today's session, presented what may be called an ultimatum, which Dr. Simmonds the German foreign minister termed "a very positive demand."

The German ministers are in session tonight at a villa three miles from Spa, which is picketed by gendarmes. Another meeting of Germans will be held tomorrow morning. Dr. Simmonds said to the Associated Press this evening:

"We do not yet know what we will do. The situation is too serious for me to make a comment on it. I would rather you did not press me."

The impression among observers is that the Germans will present a plan. The German delegates do not

May Stop Trains
On Texas Railroad
For Lack of Cash

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., July 6.—Train service on the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railroad will be suspended on September 1 if the action of the Interstate Commerce Commission in denying the railroad's application for a loan of $3,500,000 is final, and if the commission does not come to the Orient's aid in some way, Albert Deberna, general manager, said today.

Railroad Freight Rates to Be Based on Amount of Raises In Wages Granted By Labor Board

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Hearings were closed before the Interstate Commerce Commission today on the railroad's application for increased freight rates which had been described by shippers and carriers alike as the greatest single proposition in its effect on the American people ever submitted to the commission.

Decision by the commission on the application is expected early in August in order that the new rates may be effective when the government guarantee expires September 1. It is generally assumed that the forthcoming wage award of the railroad labor board will be taken into consideration, without further hearings, in adjusting the new subjects.

"The railroads under the provisions of the transportation act asked rate advances which would yield an added yearly income of $1,017,000,000 to provide the six per cent return permitted by the law. In addition the expenses to be created by the expected award of the railroad labor board, estimated at between $500,000,000 and $1,000,000,000, must be met by met by further increases, the carriers claim.

BRYAN'S HEART IS IN GRAVE, BUT HE EXPECTS IT BACK

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—"My heart is in the grave with our cause and I must pause until it comes back to me," said William J. Bryan today in giving his reason for not making any extended statement on the work of the Democratic national convention.

"My views on the convention's action in reference to the endorsement of prohibition are known," said Mr. Bryan. "I regard it as a very serious mistake—it opened the door to the nomination of a wet candidate. I need not repeat here what I have said before in regard to the evasion of other issues."

THE UNDER MAN

Democratic Nominee Speaks For Middle Ground in All Labor Disputes

MIDDLETOWN, O., July 6.—Motoring 25 miles tonight from Dayton, Governor James M. Cox, Democratic candidate for president, made his first public address after his nomination to home folks here, whom he credited with being responsible for his entry into public life, culminating in his selection as the standard bearer of his party.

Arriving here in company with Mrs. Cox and Mrs. John Root, Miss Eleanor West and Mrs. Perry Sheppard, all of Chicago, the governor found a platform erected in the public square and a crowd of several thousand people awaiting him. As he ascended to the platform, the crowd started a great ovation. It was soon cut short, however, as the weather man at that instant let go a torrent which sent the crowd to cover and the governor with them.

The rain fell for half an hour. Slackening a little, the governor was escorted to a theatre by the reception committee and a crowd surged

Case of Flotation
System Patentees

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—A hearing of the federal trade commission of the charge that the Mineral Separation Company, Ltd., an English concern, and an American and a German subsidiary, exacted exorbitant royalties from mining companies for the use of its flotation method of extracting ore, began here today before Chairman Huston Thompson of the commission. The subsidiaries are the Minerals Separation, North American, Corporation, and Beer-Sondheimer, Inc. The affairs of the latter concern are in the hands of the alien property custodian.

BISBEE DAILY REVIEW,
City.
Dear Editor:

A few weeks ago a friend of mine asked me if I knew of any one who wanted to buy some furniture. I told her I would sell it for her if she would give me the lowest possible figure that she would consider for all of it. This she did, and I immediately listed each article in the classified section of your paper with its price. In two days I had it all sold and cleared exactly $74.25. I want to tell you I think Review Want Ads are sure result getters, and I will always be a booster for them.

Very truly yours,

Will Make Strong Speaking Campaign in all States Of Union

WILL NOT RESIGN THE GOVERNORSHIP

Declares Rise From Ranks Best Training for Man In Public Life

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

DAYTON, July 5.—In a telegram to the Democratic convention accepting the nomination and thanking the delegates for their support, Governor Cox today intimated he is ready to make an intensive speaking campaign in every state.

His close friends said he will urge his political advisers against a "front porch" campaign, such as Senator Harding, Republican presidential nominee, expects to make at his home in Marion.

The governor said however, that no plans have been formulated and the campaign will not be discussed officially until Democratic national committee members and other party leaders return from San Francisco. Although he said he had not considered the matter, he indicated he had no intention of resigning as governor of Ohio in order to devote all of his time to the campaign. He pointed out that Senator Harding had announced he would not resign from the senate.

Governor Cox spent the day receiving old friends at his home, Trails' End, near Dayton, and in his office at

Blazing Oil Falls
On Mine Manager

PRESCOTT, July 6.—Explosion of a can of lubricating oil, too near a fire, resulted in placing A. Geisendorfer, manager of a mine near Hillsdale, south of here, in a hospital here today. Hearing last night that fire had broken out near out his drills, he rode horseback to the scene where he found a blaze. Seizing a bucket of water, he threw it on the fire. Part of the water fell on the can of oil and the explosion followed. Geisendorfer was covered with flaming oil. He saved his life by leaping into a water tank but sustained serious body burns.

Committee of National Board of Education Advises Against Teachers Joining A. F. of L.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, July 6.—The national education association's "commission on the emergency in education" make a clear cut recommendation against affiliation of teachers with any "religious, political or economic group," in a report presented to the association today. It, with others to be made by various committees, will be acted upon at the business session next Friday morning.

The report, read by George D. Strayer of Columbia University, vice president of the association, said: "Teachers as a unit cannot federate with labor, and at the same time hope to keep the confidence of the whole people."

It described steps leading to the drafting of the Smith-Townsend bill to create a department of education with its head a member of the president's cabinet, and made an argument in behalf of the measure.

Convention Names Assistant to Daniels by Acclamation and Without Opposition; Is Administration Man and Has Approval of Tammany and All Branches of Party; Solid Front to Be Presented

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, assistant secretary of the navy, was nominated for vice president today by the Democratic convention and became the running mate of James M. Cox of Ohio, the Democracy's choice for the presidential nomination.

The first cries of "Cox and Roosevelt" rang through the convention hall and were mixed with shouts of the vote of acclamation by which he was nominated without a ballot.

Despite the disinclination of the Tammany organization to accept him Roosevelt's name went over with a band wagon movement during which other candidates were withdrawn.

James H. Lewis of Illinois was withdrawn early by former Governor Dunne; Governor Stuart of Montana announced his own withdrawal; Edward Doheney of California and former Governor Heley of Idaho were withdrawn and Major L. D. Tison of Tennessee in person announced that he would not be a contender, as did David F. Francis of Missouri. Nomination of W. T. Vaughn of Oregon who had received state primary endorsement, was changed into a second for the successful nominee.

Colby Is Willing
Bainbridge Colby who was considered as a candidate and refused to allow his name to be used finally was urged to consent if he should be "drafted," but as it fell out, the Tammany crowd decided to accept Roosevelt, who brought to the ticket the participation of an administration man, and Mr. Colby's name was not considered further.

Roosevelt was successful, rolling up a majority of 356 in the Democratic landslide which carried John A. Dix into the governor's chair. One of the stories told of Mr. Roosevelt's first campaign by local politicians is that he corralled the farmer vote by running on a platform which advocated uniform apple barrels.

Mr. Roosevelt was re-elected in 1912, but resigned his seat on March 17, 1913, to accept the appointment of assistant secretary of the navy. His most famous exploit in the senate was his leadership of the insurgents who opposed the election of William F. Sheehan to the United States senate. After three months' deadlock, James O'Gorman was elected with Mr. Roosevelt's concurrence.

Since Mr. Roosevelt's appointment to the navy department he has spent most of his time in Washington, returning during the summer months and on holiday trips to visit his mother. He has never relinquished his deep interest in Hyde Park however, and is still one of its foremost citizens and one of the leading parishioners of St. James Episcopal church, which the Roosevelt family has attended for years. He is a frequent visitor in Poughkeepsie and active in county Democratic councils.

Mr. Roosevelt married Anna Eleanor Roosevelt, niece of the late Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and daughter of Eliot Roosevelt, March 17, 1905. They have five children. Mr. Roosevelt divides his time when at home between his family, his interest in local affairs and tennis, for which he displays his chief sporting enthusiasm. He is extremely democratic in manner, and is popular throughout the country.

In New York Mr. Roosevelt is a member of the City, Harvard, Knickerbocker and Racquet and Tennis clubs, while he is affiliated with the Army and Navy, Metropolitan and University clubs at Washington.

IN HIS PARTY

Was New York State Senator Called to Federal Post by Wilson in 1913

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., July 6.—The little village of Hyde park, birthplace and summer residence of Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy and Democratic candidate for the vice presidency, received quietly but with elation this evening the news that its favorite political son had been named as running mate to Governor James M. Cox. The Associated Press carried the first news of his nomination to Mr. Roosevelt's residence.

Mrs. James Roosevelt, his mother, said she had heard nothing from her son, but expected that he would return to Washington before coming to the family home in Hyde Park. In order to clean up the business which has accumulated at his desk in the navy department during his absence at the convention.

Mr. Roosevelt first sprang into prominence in 1910 when he was drafted by the Democrats of the 28th New York state senatorial district, in an effort to defeat Senator John F. Schlosser of Beacon, who was a candidate for re-election.
